Why it's a best seller.

The Co-op Bookshop

The Co-op Bookshop was established by students in 1958 at the University of Sydney and has grown to become the largest provider of educational, professional and lifelong learning resources in Australia. With over 40 branches across Australia, numerous additional services and close to one million members, the Co-op is more than just a bookshop.

A lifetime of membership benefits

For a one-time joining fee of just $20, a Co-op member is entitled to the following benefits for life:

- Discounted pricing everyday at all Co-op branches*.
- Access to members only promotional pricing, special offers and events.
- Textbooks for all courses as well as academic, professional and general books, software, stationery, art supplies, calculators, greeting cards and more!
- Specialist staff who understand the needs of students, academics and professionals.
- Reservation and special orders services.
- Access to Co-op bursaries and scholarships.

The Co-op's 'not for profit' status

The Co-op is proud to be registered under the NSW Co-operatives Act (the Act), which means:

- Profits are returned to our members through discounts and services.
- Every active member of the Co-op is a shareholder and is eligible to vote at general meetings and, subject to the Act and the rules of the Co-op, stand for election to the Board.
- Membership is open to anyone 16 years and over.

* Discounts do not apply to software, books marked nett, other non-book items or any item purchased on an individual member's account. Discounts apply to over the counter purchases only.
 Full range may not be available at all branches.
